

Govt sets target to build 25,000 pucca houses under PMAY (U): Assam CM

DISPUR, JULY 28 /--/ Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal launched the second phase of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) in the state on Monday. A target is set to complete the construction of 25,000 pucca houses in the 2nd phase. The government would build these houses with an expenditure of Rs. 749.52 crore. As part of the initiative, the chief minister laid the foundation stone for a pucca house of a beneficiary at Nagaon Municipality Board on Monday. He also ceremonially distributed cheques amounting to Rs 80,000 (1st installment) to a few beneficiaries and disbursed an equal amount to the rest of the beneficiaries through electronic transfer. The Chief Minister while speaking in a program held on the occasion at Khagen Mahanta Auditorium in Nagaon today, which was organized under the aegis of Urban Development Department in association with PMAY (U) and Nagaon Municipal Board said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi since coming to power in 2014 has been working to ensure a dignified life for the weaker sections of the society. Sonowal said that a number of programs with an aim to address the basic needs of the people were taken up by the Government. As part of such efforts, PMAY was launched with the objective of housing for all by 2022. Chief minister Sonowal informed that the State Government had built around 3 lakh houses under PMAY (G) since 2016. The government has set a target to construct 4.36 houses under PMAY (G), he said. He further said that there were many IAY houses which were left incomplete by the previous government.

However, the present government not only completed constructed of the IAY houses but also aggressively carried out the PMAY scheme, Sonowal said. He also urged the beneficiaries of PMAY (U) to ensure the quality construction of their houses. Underlining the welfare schemes of the central and state governments, the chief minister said that steps were taken for the first time for the financial inclusion of the poor in the country. He said that under PM Jan Dhan Yojana, 36 crore bank accounts were opened since 2014. Further, PM Ujjala Yojana and similar other programs were taken up for the empowerment of women and other weaker sections, Sonowal said adding that the PM's mantra of "Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Viswas" brought about visible changes in the country. He also praised the PM for his leadership in rekindling nationalistic fervor among people in the country following the ideal of "Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat". Water resources minister Keshav Mahanta, minister of state in charge for urban development department Pijush Hazarika and Nagaon MLA Rupak Sarma also spoke on the occasion. While Principal Secretary of UDD Neeraj Verma delivered the welcome address, the program was also attended by MLAs Dimbeswar Das and Ramakanta Deuri, MD PMAY Subhasish Das, DC Jadav Saikia, SP Gaurav Abhijit Dilip and other dignitaries among others. Agriculture minister inaugurates Green-Ag

AIZAWL, JULY 28 /--/ Agriculture Minister C. Lalrinsanga inaugurated Green-Ag: Transforming Indian Agriculture for global environmental benefits and the conservation of critical bio-diversity and forest landscapes at SAMETI Conference Hall, Aizawl today. In his speech, he said it is mandatory to remind ourselves time and again the importance of sustainable use of our environment and our natural resources. He said as we strive for the fulfillment of our economic needs, we must not forget to maintain the optimum equilibrium between ecosystem and economic development. He also said that Green Ag Project will catalyse transformative change of the agricultural sector whereby providing economic upliftment to the people of the focus area with awareness on conservation of IUCN Endangered Species and critically vulnerable flora and fauna. Department of Agriculture (Crop Husbandry) will be the State Nodal Agency, and the two focus areas of this project includes Dampa tiger reserve and Thorang wildlife sanctuary accommodating more than 30 villages, which are highly dependent on forest produce with the number of dwellers increasing every year. (DIPR)

Sonowal inaugurates Sootea police station

DISPUR, JULY 28 /--/ Assam chief minister Sarbananda Sonowal on Monday inaugurated the newly constructed building of historic Sootea Police Station at Sootea, Biswanath. The police station, which was established in 1913, is steeped in memories of Indian freedom struggle and is restored by Archeology Department, Govt of Assam, keeping its heritage value intact. Sonowal also laid the foundation stone of PWD Inspection Bungalow at Sootea. Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Minister said that the people of Gohpur, Sootea, Dhakiajuli areas fought valiantly against the British during the independence movement and that is why the state government was working towards preserving the heritage buildings and monuments to inspire the young generation with the glorious history of the state. He also directed the Minister of Archeology Department Keshab Mahanta to take steps for digitizing the important historic documents in the police station. Assuring the people of Sootea that more government offices would be set up in the town along with a new stadium, Sonowal thanked Assam's people for diligently fighting situations like COVID-19, flood, erosion, storm, Baghian oil well fire, etc at the same time. He urged the public to point out any lapses in administration by the state government. Speaking at the program, minister of archeology department Keshab Mahanta informed that the state government was sincerely working to preserve the important monuments and landmarks bearing significance for various communities and for these efforts, central government has taken steps to develop the maidams at Charaideo in Sivasagar district as iconic sites with an expenditure of Rs 25 crore.
