

Delhi HC dismisses Omar's plea challenging its office order on final hearing of matters

NEW DELHI, NOV 3 /-- The Delhi High Court today dismissed former Jammu and Kashmir chief minister Omar Abdullah's plea challenging its circular of April mandating that both parties in a case have to agree for the final hearing to be taken up early via video conferencing mode.

Omar had contended that his matrimonial appeal against a 2016 trial court order, which dismissed his divorce petition, has been listed for final hearing since February 2017. It was not taken up during the restricted functioning of the courts in view of COVID-19 pandemic as his estranged wife, Payal Abdullah, did not give consent to virtual proceedings. Due to the lack of cooperation by his estranged wife the matter was getting delayed, the former J&K chief minister contended. A bench of Justices Hima Kohli and Subramonium Prasad, however, declined to grant any relief saying lack of cooperation of his estranged wife was not a ground for challenging the high court's April 26 office order. "Simply because the respondent 2 herein (Payal Abdullah) was not consenting to an early hearing, can hardly be a ground to assail the office order. The petition is dismissed as meritless," the bench said.

Omar had moved an application seeking early former Jammu and Kashmir chief minister Omar Abdullah hearing of his appeal in July. The High Court had declined to entertain it saying that its Registrar General has already issued a circular stating that during the restricted functioning of courts due to COVID-19, a request for final hearing of pending matters will be entertained only if both the parties agree.

"In view of the fact that this application is not accompanied by any consent from the other side (Payal) and nor is the counsel for the respondent present in the hearing, though we are informed that an advance copy of the application was served on him, we are not in a position to accede to the prayer made in the application," the high court had said and dismissed the application. On August 30, 2016, the trial court had dismissed Omar's plea seeking divorce from Payal saying he had failed to prove irretrievable breakdown of the marriage. The trial court had said that

Omar could not prove his claims of "cruelty" or "desertion" which were the grounds alleged by him for grant of decree of divorce.

"The petitioner (Omar) has not been able to explain a single circumstance to show that the supervening circumstances have erupted which has made it impossible for him to continue his relationship with the respondent (Payal). "Rather, evidence shows that they were in continuous contact till the filing of the divorce petition," the trial court had said in its order, adding that "there is not an iota of evidence in regard to the circumstances which have prevailed to prompt the petitioner to file the divorce plea". It had further held that Omar "failed to prove his case for divorce on ground of cruelty". In his plea seeking divorce, Omar had claimed before the trial court that his marriage had broken down irretrievably and he has not enjoyed a conjugal relationship since 2007 and that the couple, married on September 1, 1994, were living separately since 2009. The couple have two sons who are staying with their mother. The petition before the trial court had also alleged that Omar was subject to "unreasonable conduct" of Payal, causing pain and harassment to the politician. (PTI)

NGT directs UP chief secy to prepare action plan for protection of water bodies

NEW DELHI, NOV 3 /-- The National Green Tribunal today directed the Uttar Pradesh chief secretary to hold a meeting with all District Magistrates to prepare a uniform action plan for identification and protection of water bodies.

A bench headed by NGT Chairperson Justice Adarsh Kumar Goel said encroachment of water bodies is a serious issue and this needs attention of the authorities at the state level and special plan and drive is necessary. It is high time that the issue is seriously addressed. We also find that the authorities are stuck up in cumbersome procedure of revenue law without invoking prompt and summary procedure of environmental law, the bench also comprising Justice S K Singh said.

The NGT said there is no monitoring at higher level and a conscious decision needs to be taken in this regard at higher levels of the administration and if found necessary, powers need to be given to the Forest Department or the District Magistrate or any suitable department which can promptly retrieve the water bodies. In view of the above and having regard to the significance of the issue and failure of the authorities so far in performing their public trust obligation, we direct the Chief Secretary, UP to hold a meeting with all District Magistrates by video conferencing within one month from today to address the issue and to prepare a uniform action plan applicable throughout State of UP for identification and protection of water bodies, the bench said.

The NGT said the action taken by state pollution control board is neither adequate nor in right direction and it appears that the concerned officers are not conversant with the law of the land which is resulting in serious damage to the environment. Water bodies are the life line of the environment for ground water recharge, storage of water for different purposes, for micro climate, aesthetics, etc, it said. The tribunal also asked the Monitoring Committee headed by Justice SVS Rathore, former Judge of the Allahabad High Court, to monitor compliance and furnish its independent report in the matter by e-mail. The direction came after perusing a report filed by District Magistrate of Ghaziabad stating that large number of water bodies were encroached. Percentage of encroached water bodies is around 72.90 per cent (183 water bodies). Action has been initiated under Section 67 of the UP Revenue Code, 2006. Only 49 out of 261 water bodies are free from encroachment in Ghaziabad District, the report said. The green panel was hearing a plea filed by Ghaziabad resident Sushil Raghav alleging that water bodies are being diverted in Ghaziabad for industrial purposes in violation of law. (PTI)

Sikh activist, who tried hoisting tricolour on PDP office, detained

JAMMU, NOV 3 /-- A Sikh activist, who tried to hoist the national flag atop the PDP office here during a protest against remarks by its chief Mehbooba Mufti on the tricolour, was detained by police today, officials said.

On October 24, Amandeep Singh had hoisted the national flag on the boundary wall near the main entrance of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) office and a day later, he along with some youths attempted to hoist it on the party's headquarters, but were stopped by police. Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP), Jammu, Sridhar Patil confirmed Singh's detention. He has been detained under some other case and not for disturbance to law and order, the officer said. Police, however, did not give details of the charges against the Sikh activist. Singh has been either booked for violation of COVID-19 protocols and the Disaster Management Act or for trespass, sources said. While the activist was being shifted in a vehicle, he told reporters that he is being "arrested" by police under pressure from the PDP. Led by the station house officer of Gandhinagar, a police team raided Singh's house at Sanjay Nagar and took him in the presence of journalists. Singh's father, who rushed to the Gandhinagar police station following the police action, told reporters that he was not being allowed to meet his son. "They are not allowing me to meet my son. I have the right to know under which case they have booked my son.

This is the worst state of rule in which patriots and nationalists unfurling the tricolour are being sent to jail," his father said. Singh's wife alleged that "this is the treatment given to nationalist and patriotic people in Jammu." "Is this a lesson for being a nationalist and hoisting the national flag," she asked. Protests were staged outside the PDP officer last month after Mehbooba, a former chief minister, said she is not interested in contesting elections or holding the tricolour till the constitutional changes enforced on August 5 last year are rolled back. She had said she would hold the national flag only when the separate flag of the erstwhile state of Jammu and Kashmir is restored. The Centre on August 5 last year had abrogated the erstwhile state's special status and bifurcated it into union territories of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh, following the PDP chief's statements, the BJP had accused her of making "seditious remarks" and had demanded her arrest. ## Delhi Prisons to facilitate Karwa Chauth celebrations for women inmates

NEW DELHI, NOV 3 /-- The Delhi Prisons will facilitate Karwa Chauth celebrations for its women inmates while strictly adhering to the coronavirus protocol, officials said today. There are 450 women inmates lodged in Delhi jails and around 200 will observe fast on the occasion, they said. The women are lodged in jail number 6 and 16 in the city, they added. Karwa Chauth -- one-day festival celebrated by Hindu women from north India, four days after purima in the month of Kartika -- will be observed on Wednesday.

According to a senior jail official, all Karwa Chauth-related material has been kept available in the jails where women inmates are lodged. He, however, said the meetings with outsiders will not be allowed for the women. Precautions will be taken as per COVID-19 protocol during Karwa Chauth in the jail premises, Director General (Prisons) Sandeep Goel said. (PTI)
